

Members Elected to Bishop & Council at the 224th Convention

The Reverend Juan V. George became a priest in 1997. From 1997 to 2005 he was Associate Priest at Grace Church/Santa Rosa, White Plains, NY. In 2005, he and his family moved from New York to Delaware. In 2005, he was named Urban Missioner at the Cathedral Church of St. John and in 2007, Associate Priest at Trinity Parish.

Mr. Timothy J. Koob is a member of the Cathedral Church of St. John, where he has served on the Vestry as Senior Warden. Recently, Tim chaired a Joint Working Group (Cathedral and Diocese representatives) commissioned by the Bishop and Dean. This group's report, delivered to the Standing Committee, provided recommendations and actions to continue the presence of the Episcopal Church in the Brandywine Village. Tim has worked for DuPont for 22 years in various positions within Finance and is currently a Global Audit Manager.

Sandra Janowski is a member of Christ Church Delaware City, DE since 2002 where she has served on the Vestry as Junior Warden, and Chairman of Outreach and Communications. Sandra has been active in many aspects of life at Christ Church as editor of the church newsletter, convention delegate, communion assistant and acolyte. In her professional life, Sandra is a Geographic Information Systems Program Analyst with New Castle County.

The Rev. Anna M. Waid has been rector of Grace Church for 9 years. She has served on the Diocesan Christian Education Committee, Diocesan Nominating Committee, Standing Committee, of which she was president, and the Interfaith Resource Center, of which she was president. Presently she serves on the Commission on Ministry and is an ad hoc member of the Working Group of the Cathedral. Anna serves as a consultant for churches in transition; is trained as a safe church facilitator; and as a facilitator for Mutual Ministry Review. She lives in Brandywine Hundred with her husband, Bill, and two beagles, and she has recently become the doting grandmother of Analiese Waid.

Sue Welles has been a member of Immanuel Church, Highlands since 1986 and currently heads the Outreach Ministry. She helped organize and fundraise for two Katrina Mission trips. Her service includes Vestry, Sunday school teacher, choir, and lay Eucharistic minister. Prior to retirement, Sue worked in land preservation for 17 years with the Delaware Nature Society and currently serves on the board of Friendship House.

Ginny Wingate was a member of St. Barnabas Church for 23 years. While there, she served as Altar Guild Director, music librarian, representative for United Thank Offering, Worship and worked on Outreach Committees and Episcopal Relief & Development. Ginny trained as a Stephen Minister, has 1 year of Education for Ministry and recently became a Lay Eucharistic Visitor. On a Diocesan level, Ginny previously served as United Thank Offering Coordinator, and is currently serving as New Castle County Representative on the ECW Board. Ginny now attends St. Anne's, Middletown.